  - Your upload: Make sure each problem’s solution begins on a new page!
Note #1: Basic Needs Resources

• Are you eating properly? Do you have adequate access to nutritious food? Do you have stable housing? Are you homeless or couch surfing?

• If you or someone you know has food and/or housing insecurity, please note: http://basicneeds.ucsd.edu
  • The Triton Food Pantry (in the old Student Center), https://www.facebook.com/tritonfoodpantry/, is free and anonymous, and includes produce.
  • Financial aid resources, the possibility of emergency grant funding, and off-campus housing referral resources are available.
  • CAPS and college deans can connect students to the above resources, as well as other community resources and support.
Note #2: Sexual Violence and Harassment

The Office for the Prevention of Harassment & Discrimination (OPHD) provides assistance to students, faculty, and staff regarding reports of bias, harassment, and discrimination. OPHD is the UC San Diego Title IX office. Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 is the federal law that prohibits sex discrimination in educational institutions that are recipients of federal funds. Jacobs School students have the right to an educational environment that is free from harassment and discrimination.

Students have options for reporting incidents of sexual violence and sexual harassment. Sexual violence includes sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. Information about reporting options may be obtained at OPHD at (858) 534-8298, ophd@ucsd.edu or http://ophd.ucsd.edu. Students may receive confidential assistance at CARE at the Sexual Assault Resource Center at (858) 534-5793, sarc@ucsd.edu or http://care.ucsd.edu or Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) at (858) 534-3755 or http://caps.ucsd.edu.

Students may feel more comfortable discussing their particular concern with a trusted employee. This may be a Jacobs School student affairs staff member, a department Chair, a faculty member or other University official. These individuals have an obligation to report incidents of sexual violence and sexual harassment to OPHD. This does not necessarily mean that a formal complaint will be filed.

If you find yourself in an uncomfortable situation, ask for help. The Jacobs School is committed to upholding University policies regarding nondiscrimination, sexual violence and sexual harassment.
